

1 Verified Affidavit in Support of Post-Conviction Relief and Notice of Tort Claim

2 Superior Court of New Jersey – Criminal Division

3 Docket No.: ATL-22-002313

4 Filed by: Devon Tyler of the Paccillo family

5 I, Devon Tyler, of the Paccillo family, declare under penalty of perjury:

6

7 I. Verified Facts

8 1. I entered into a labor agreement—both verbal and by text—with Joseph Hardemon Jr., a
9 registered New Jersey HIC contractor. I was asked to perform skilled labor and site
10 maintenance for a project that had fallen behind schedule.

11 2. At the time, Mr. Hardemon was fully aware that I was out of work, lacked a work truck,
12 and had lost my business insurance due to COVID-related economic hardship. I had 13 previously worked on record as a W-2 employee and believed the proper documentation
14 would be handled professionally.

15 3. I was invited to reside temporarily on-site and worked consistently cleaning up after their
16 crews, managing tools, and advancing the renovation. I relied on Mr. Hardemon's
17 representation and licensing status in good faith.

18 4. Despite completing the labor, I was never compensated. When I asked for payment, I was 19 ignored. In response, I posted a lawful “No Trespassing” sign on the property to protect 20 my interest and prevent further unauthorized use of my labor and time.

21 5. That sign was intentionally mischaracterized as a criminal threat by Joseph Hardemon
22 Sr., who at the time had a prior conviction for aggravated sexual assault on a child under 23 13—a material fact that was never disclosed by the prosecution.

24 6. Shortly before my arrest, I had acquired other work through Nick of NAC Custom
25 Carpentry and was driving his company vehicle both on and off duty, lawfully employed
26 to support myself after being defrauded by the Hardemon family.

27 II. Violations of Law and Legal Duties

28 7. The prosecution violated:

- 29 ○ Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963)
30 ○ Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972)

31 8. No sworn complaint from an injured party was ever submitted. No threat was 32 communicated. The charge under N.J.S.A. 2C:12-3 was unsupported by evidence or due 33 process.

34 9. The matter was criminalized to suppress a wage grievance, not because a crime occurred.
35 The arrest and prosecution were carried out by Galloway Township Police, where my 36 stepfather was then serving as Chief of Police, creating a disqualifying conflict of 37 interest.

38 10. My defense counsel failed to raise any of the above facts, and I assert professional 39 negligence as a secondary cause of harm.
