Good afternoon Mr. Wertzberger and the Criminal Division Management Team,

I am Devon Tyler Barber, Defendant/Petitioner pro se in State v. Barber, Docket Nos. ATL-22-002292 and ATL-22-002313 (Unified Guilty Plea / Unified PCR).

On December 17, 2025, I filed via JEDS (Criminal → Post-Conviction Relief) a Unified Motion to Compel Administrative Consolidation, Assignment of a PCR Judge, and Issuance of a Scheduling Order, together with supporting certifications, exhibits, a proposed order, and a certification of service.

This email is submitted solely for administrative case-management routing to ensure the pending PCR matter is assigned and scheduled. It is not intended to request any ex parte consideration of the merits.

Attachments:

A. Administrative Documents (attached individually):

- Cover Letter and Administrative Consolidation Request

B. Unified Filing (single PDF):

- Notice of Motion
- Motion to Compel (Administrative Relief Only)
- Certification of Procedural Clarification and Record Harmonization
- Certification in Support
- Exhibits (PCR filing proof; record-preservation filings; Appellate Division orders)
- Proposed Order
- Certification of Service

Service: The Atlantic County Prosecutor's Office is being concurrently served via this email (cc) and the attached unified PDF.

Thank you for your attention to administrative processing.

Respectfully,

/s/ Devon Tyler Barber
